

FACULTY RESOURCE NETWORK SUMMER 2019 SEMINAR SERIES

Date: June 10-14, 2019

Location: New York University Washington Square Campus Application

Deadline: Monday, February 11, 2019

Network Summer is one of the largest and most successful faculty development programs in the nation. Each summer, more than two hundred fifty faculty members from Faculty Resource Network institutions converge on NYU's campus for intensive seminars that enhance and revitalize their teaching and scholarship. Within each program of study, we place a special emphasis on teaching methodologies that will have a direct impact on the undergraduate curriculum and educational experience. This year's seminar descriptions and applications are now online.

2019 SUMMER SCHOLAR-IN-RESIDENCE PROGRAMS

Date: June 3-28, 2019

Location: New York University Washington Square Campus Application

Deadline: Monday, February 11, 2019

The Summer Scholar-in-Residence program allows Network faculty to come to New York University during the month of June to engage in research, develop curricula, and/or produce manuscripts for publication. The program allows Scholars to explore new dimensions in their disciplines, to engage in intellectual exchange and investigate resources not available to them at their home institutions, to broaden their own pedagogical expertise, to enrich existing courses or create new ones, and to expand professional contacts. Additionally, FRN faculty members are eligible for special summer residencies, the Michael Fassiotto and Calvin B. Grimes fellowships.
