

Farmingdale State College
The Office of Equity and Diversity
Presents

“It is estimated that for every 1,000 women attending a college or university, there are 35 incidents of rape each academic year.”

The Office of Equity and Diversity will hold a screening of "The Hunting Ground," a documentary that explores the rampant issue of sexual assault on college campuses across the country. This event is open to students, faculty, staff, and the community.

Date: Tuesday, October 27, 2015

Location: Gleeson Hall, Room 104

Screening: 3:05 – 4:20 p.m.

Screening will be followed by Q &A and discussion.

For more information about our program, please call Dr. Veronica Henry in the Office of Equity & Diversity at 631-420-2622.