

Mock Crime Scene Investigation

Presented by: The School of Arts & Sciences Criminal Justice Program

*You are invited to Join
Dr. David Byrne & CRJ 201 Criminalistics students.*

Come, be a part and view this interactive mock crime scene investigation. As CRJ 201 PM3 Criminalistics students put into practice what they have learned during this semester. See how they find, document, collect evidence and interview eye witnesses. Most importantly find out how important it is to keep the crime scene from becoming contaminated by curious bystanders.
