

SUNY Conference on Instruction and Technology (CIT 2017)

Call for Presentations!

Hosted by SUNY Oneonta – May 30 – June 2, 2017

Online presentation submission is now open for the 26th Annual SUNY Conference on Instruction & Technology (CIT), sponsored by SUNY FACT² (Faculty Advisory Council on Teaching and Technology).

CIT is SUNY's largest and most prominent event on instructional technology, providing a forum for faculty, instructional support professionals, and policymakers to present, discuss, and explore innovative avenues for integrating technology into the teaching and learning environment.

All SUNY campuses, state-operated, statutory, and community colleges are invited to submit abstracts to present at this conference. We welcome proposals from outside the SUNY system as well.

Guidelines for Presentation Submission: Proposals are due by December 31, 2016

This year's theme Teaching and Learning in Multiple Dimensions is supported by the following tracks:

- Diverse Learners, Diverse Learning Styles
- Post Traditional Learners/Lifelong Learning/Career Retooling/Career Credentialing
- Student Success: Retention & Remediation
- Professional Partnerships
- Iterative Journeys

Abstract submissions are being accepted at the Introductory, Intermediate and Advanced levels and in the following formats: Presentation, Panel, Birds of a Feather, Hands-on Demo, Ignite, Workshop, Special Interest Group, and Poster.

Please visit the CIT Website to view detailed descriptions and submit a proposal. The CIT website is found at <http://cit.suny.edu/>.
