

Black History Month

An Historical Perspective

Featuring Bernice Sims, Civil Rights Activist, Author
Unfolding: “Detour Before Midnight” A Story of Her Soul

Her unique historical memoirs will cast you right in the heart of Mississippi during the Freedom Summer of 1964, rendering the civil rights movement through the passionate eyes of a young African American youth. Detour Before Midnight demonstrates one woman’s remarkable courage to overcome years of grief and survivor’s guilt in order to finally offer her personal and passionate tribute to these men.

Thursday, February 16, 2017 at 11:00 a.m.
Campus Center – Ballroom A
Refreshments will be served

Sponsored by:
Office of Diversity, Equity & Inclusion
Social Science Research Institute, and Student Activities

Reach Higher.

Farmingdale
State College

State University of New York