

Second Chances: The “Deserving” and “Non-Deserving”

Dr. Cooke will address the notion of second chances in relation to individuals who are released from prison. Effective, thoughtful chances (first and second) are beneficial for reasons beyond just safety, including community cohesion, area financial and political power, and budget re-allocation. Dr. Cooke will layout personal and societal “limits” to second chances, current policies that address these concerns, and future efforts.

SECOND CHANCES

Presented by
Dr. LaNina N. Cooke
Acting Chair, Criminal Justice
Farmingdale State College

Tuesday, April 4, 2017
10:50 a.m.-12:05 p.m.
Ward Hall Great Room

For more information call 631-420-2467

Farmingdale
State College
State University of New York

farmingdale.edu