

Presented by
The Criminal Justice Program

You are invited to join
Dr. David Byrne & CRJ201
Criminalistics students for a

Mock Crime Scene Investigation

Be part of this interactive mock crime scene investigation as CRJ 201-PM3 Criminalistics students put into practice what they have learned during this semester.

See how they find, document and collect evidence as well as interview eye witnesses. Most importantly, find out how critical it is to keep the crime scene from becoming contaminated by curious bystanders.
