

RE-WRITING LAWS TO HELP SEXUAL ASSAULT SURVIVORS

Amanda Nguyen

a millennial driven national civil rights nonprofit

Sexual assault survivors in America too often face a broken justice system. Rape kits are often disposed of too quickly to make arrests—and depending on the state you're in, survivors may not have the right to access their rape kits at all. In this talk, Amanda Nguyen discusses her journey to re-writing legislation and her fight for women's rights all the way to the Supreme Court.
