To the right of the '100' graphic, the names of the artists are listed in a clean, sans-serif font:

MARY AHERN
GEORGE FERNANDEZ
FRANCIS J. KLAESS
MICHAEL MASTERMAKER
IWONA RUDZKI

In collaboration with the Alumni Relations Office, the Farmingdale State College Memorial Gallery is excited to announce a special exhibition planned in-part with the College-wide celebration of the Centennial Commencement.

Memorial Gallery presents, Centennial Celebration: Alumni Pop - Up Exhibit, curated by Beth Giacummo. This exhibition will be on view from May 13 through May 24, 2019. A special closing reception will take place on May 24 from 5:00 -7:00 PM.

This exhibition features 20+ works in varied media from 5 Farmingdale State College Alumni including three of our very own Visual Communications professors. Artists on exhibit include Mary Ahern, George Fernandez, Francis J Klaess, Michael Mastermaker, and Iwona Rudzki.

"I am excited to see this pop-up exhibition come together and include Farmingdale alumni that are still a very important part of the College community. We are looking forward to planning a large scale alumni exhibition in the future." B.Giacummo

Memorial Gallery

The Memorial Gallery's mission is to serve as a vital teaching instrument and visual resource that enriches campus cultural life as well as that of the surrounding community. This is to be accomplished through the exhibition of imagery related to the communication arts, which represent a wide range of media, cultures, and time periods.

The Memorial Gallery is located in Hale Hall, on the campus of Farmingdale State College – State University of New York – 2350 Broadhollow Road (Route. 110).

Gallery hours: Monday through Friday from 9:00AM – 4:00PM. Admission is free and the gallery is accessible to persons with mobility impairments. Please call in advance of your trip.
