

2019 SUNY Diversity Conference

4 REASONS TO REGISTER

*The conference is right around the corner! Have you registered?
Booked your hotel room at our special rate at the Wolf Rd. Marriott?*

1. Get ready for updates on the laws and policies impacting diversity and inclusion in higher education.
2. Prepare to learn about diversity and inclusion initiatives that are working across SUNY's campuses.
3. Anticipate catching up with other SUNY colleagues.
4. Expect two days filled with riveting keynote speakers, informative workshops, and intensive networking.

December 3, 2019/PRODIG Pre-Conference Institute

This inaugural event convenes the 2019 Cohort of PRODiG-supported faculty from across the SUNY System for a full day of mentoring, cohort-building, and professional development workshops offered by the National Center for Faculty Development and Diversity (NCFDD). Those attending these free workshops will master strategies for advancing their academic careers and creating effective mentoring relationships. The day concludes with a reception in the faculty's honor, attended by Chancellor Johnson, SUNY presidents, and members of the Board of Trustees.

December 4, 2019/KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Scott Jaschik is Editor and a Founder of Inside Higher Ed. He leads the editorial operations of Inside Higher Ed, overseeing news content, opinion pieces, career advice, blogs, and other key features. Jaschik is a leading voice on higher education issues and a studied observer of trends in diversity policy and practices. He is quoted regularly in publications nationwide and publishes articles on colleges in publications such as The New York Times, The Boston Globe, The Washington Post, and Salon. Jaschik grew up in Rochester, N.Y., and graduated from Cornell University in 1985.

December 5, 2019/KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Dr. Guillermo Linares, Ed.D., is the President of the Higher Education Services Corporation. For more than 40 years, he has remained committed to improving access to public education. As President of HESC, Linares oversees the Board of Trustees and HESC's core programs, including the Excelsior Scholarship Program; the Tuition Assistance Program; the highly successful College Savings program; and numerous state scholarships, including STEM and federal college access grants. Linares received a BA and MS from City College and a professional diploma in administration and supervision from Fordham University. He holds a Ph.D. in education from Teachers College, Columbia University.

